Here at Backhouse Solicitors we are extremely grateful to every person working within the NHS during the Coronavirus pandemic.

We understand that due to the current situation, staff are being advised to make sure they have a Will in place. To help, we are offering all NHS staff a discount of 25% on our usual Will fees.

We will prepare and send your draft Wills within 48 hours of your instructions being received. Once you confirm that you are happy with the drafts we will send final copies to you to enable them to be signed and witnessed. Any of your NHS colleagues can act as witnesses to your Wills (we will explain how). Alternatively, we can provide a Will-witnessing service whilst maintaining social distancing guidelines if you are not able to arrange to complete your Will whilst at work.

All correspondence with us can be done via phone or email so you don't need to take time out of your extremely busy schedules to meet with us.

To find out more or to book an appointment with our expert team of solicitors please contact us today to speak to either Claire Macklin or Ann Coutts.
